DISCOVER COMMUNITY AT BATTERY PARK CITY PARKS PROGRAMS

MESSAGE FROM THE BPCA ACTING PRESIDENT, B.J. JONES

A new year in Battery Park City brings with it a new collection of unbeatable programming for our residents, friends, and visitors. From the History of the Hudson River Valley to A Year on Broadway, not to mention cultural workshops, art, music, and fitness activities, there are more than 500 programs and events for guests of all ages.

Last year our Parks Programming saw record attendance, with nearly 65,000 participants drawn to 1,200 classes, programs, and events. This year we're looking to further engage our community with free and exciting new programming as well as reduced rates at some of our most popular classes. So come one, come all to experience what Battery Park City has to offer!

HISTORY OF THE HUDSON RIVER VALLEY

TUESDAY

1PM, 6 RIVER TERRACE

Sailing down the river that would later bear his captain's name, explorer Robert Juet described the Hudson River Valley in 1609 as a "drowned land" submerged by a "great lake of water." Over the next two centuries, this drowned landscape would be the site of a truly historic flowering of art, literature, architecture, innovation, and revolutionary fervor. Join historian Vernon Benjamin as he illuminates the multifaceted history of New York's great river with stories both familiar and revealing. Free

Edward Moran's (1829-1901) Henrik Hudson Entering New York Harbor, 1892

New York City's Washington Market at Fulton Street, 1929

FEB13

MARKETS AS COMMUNITY

TUESDAY

1PM, 6 RIVER TERRACE

In contrast to economic globalization covering the planet with big-box stores, public markets are undergoing a sweeping renaissance as people strive to rebuild local economies and keep human connections flourishing.

David K. O'Neil has been creating and reviving public markets for years. Join us as he speaks on the subject that has guided his work, and learn about the history of Tribeca's own Washington Market. Free

Georgia O'Keeffe's Black Mesa Landscape, New Mexico / Out Back of Marie's II, 1930

MAR27

A YEAR ON BROADWAY

TUESDAY

1PM, 6 RIVER TERRACE

Artist Elise Engler will discuss A Year on Broadway, her year-long project of drawing on-site every block of Broadway in Manhattan from Broadway Bridge at 221st Street to Bowling Green. The final work is 109 feet by 6 inches and can be accordion-folded, allowing the viewer to follow the drawing as if walking the length of Broadway in accelerated time. The piece has been featured in The New Yorker and on CBS's Sunday Morning. Free

Elise Engler, A Year on Broadway, 46th Street-51st Street, 2014-2015

MAR13

GEORGIA O'KEEFFE'S NEW MEXICO YEARS

TUESDAY

1PM, 6 RIVER TERRACE

During the 1930's, Georgia O'Keeffe transitioned from New York to New Mexico, a land she called "the far away." Ghost Ranch, with backyard mountain views of Pedernal, became her landscape. Artist Marla Lipkin will lead the talk focusing on how O'Keeffe made her life in the Southwest and the paintings that resulted. Free
